TERMS, ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

Volume VII.

FRANKFORT KY., MAY 24, 1884.

Number 36.

Louisville has opened her permanent art gallery.

There will be a wedding in this city on the 18th of June, so says Madame Rumor.

Hallie Morton, of color, was tried Thursday before Squire Bohannon for fighting and fined $10.

The Colorado potato bugs have made their appearance in much larger numbers than usual this year.

The ice-cream saloons are open and a young man walking with his best girl is particular about the street he goes on.

The new buildings on St. Clair street are being pushed to completion and in a short time will be in the hands of the painters.

Mr. George T. Stagg, of the E. H. Taylor, Jr. Co., has moved to Frankfort from St. Louis and rented the Dudley property on Wilkerson street.

Mr. Henry Burekhardt will re-open his meat store in the room in Mr. Calaghan's building, on Broadway, formerly occupied by Mr. Tom Ballew.

Mr. Z. Taylor Collins has re-opened his meat store on the South Side, and Mr. Henry Duval has opened a fruit and vegetable stand at the same place.

Messrs. Payne & Berry have moved their insurance office up stairs, just above their old place on St. Clair street and have got one of the "toniest" offices in the town.

Mr. Z. T. Parrent, Agent for Messrs. L. Richardson & Co., Louisville, has received and shipped from this point over 80,000 pounds of wool in the last week or ten days.

We add to our exchange list the Kentucky Education and at first failed to recognize in it our old friend the K. M. I. News, enlarged and improved. We welcome it heartily and hope for it a long life of usefulness.

The Governor has not officially notified the Superior Court of the death of Judge Reid. He says the expense of holding a special election to fill the vacancy caused by Reid's death would be so heavy that he will probably not order one to be held.

Ed. Bryant, of color, in default of bail has been sent to Castle Shannon to await the action of the Circuit Court against him for vagrancy. There is a warrant on the same charge out against one George L. Hammond. Judge Thompson gives fair warning to that class of persons that if their ways are not mended they will suffer the fate of Bryant.

The ladies of Providence Baptist Church, this county, will give fish fry at Black's Pond to-day. A small admission fee will be charged to the grounds, and all parties will have the privilege of fishing. The fish will be cooked on the grounds, and the ladies will furnish other substantial as well as cakes and ices. It is just a nice drive from town, you will have a pleasant time if you attend, and will contribute to a good cause. Don't fail to go out and take your fishing tackle and bait with you.

The charming little fairy drama of Cinderella, given at the Opera House Friday night for the benefit of the Methodist Church, was a grand success, and was enjoyed by the large audience present more than any entertainment the past season. The children who sustained the several parts all did exceedingly well without exception. The receipts amounted to $155 clear of expenses.

Our people were so well pleased with the performance that in response to a petition numerously signed the performance was repeated on Thursday evening to a good audience.

Miss Ollie Compton gave a most enjoyable party at her home at the Forks last night. Quite a crowd from town were present.

Some attention should be paid to the proper ventilation of the Opera House now that warm weather is come. It was unpleasantly close Thursday night.

The funeral services of Mrs. W. H. Ditzler, whose remains are now in the vault at the cemetery, will be preached Sunday, June 1st, at the Methodist Church in this city.

Mr. H. R. Williams is tearing down the house on Logan street formerly owned by the late Thompson Conway, and will erect on its site a neat and comfortable dwelling.

We only need street-cars and letter carriers to be a perfect city. The streets are all named and the houses numbered and in place of "just opposite the stump above the well" you hear number—, Main street.

In accordance with a request made by the General Officers National W. C. T. U. the ladies comprising the Union in Frankfort will hold a meeting of Prayer at the Christian Church on Tuesday, May 27th, 4 to 5 p. m. Members of other temperance societies, and friends of the cause are cordially invited.

The following programme will be carried out:

Our First Snake Story.

Having not heard of any snake stories for the present year, and being pushed for copy, we will now take the lead. Last Wednesday morning Mrs. J. J. Peterson went into the kitchen for the purpose of preparing dinner, when her attention was attracted by some noise near the stove, and going to see what it was she discovered a snake three feet in length coiled up under the stove. She gave the alarm, and in a few moments all hands were ready, armed with wood, coal, pokers, and shovels, and after a serious battle of about five minutes in length they succeeded in coining out victorious. Next.

The Wilbur Opera Company last evening gave Andran's favorite comic opera of "Olivette," at the Arch street theatre, with Miss Susie Kirwin in the title role. Miss Kirwin's conception of "Olivette" is that which makes her a foiblesome girl, rather than an artful and designing woman, who knows a good deal she isn't any business to know, and it is needless to say that the former impersonation is by far the more pleasing of the two. Miss Kirwin's performance is beautiful of engaging bits of business, and her rendition of the songs of the part, particularly the "song and the" "Torpedo and the Whale," is quite effective. The music sung here is better than that of Bertina's songs in the "Masco." Miss Ray Samuel's contralto voice is heard to excellent advantage in the role of the Countess, the beautiful solo "Nearest and Dearest" being given with particular impressiveness. Mr. J. L. Brand sang well as the Duc des Iles, and Mr. Fred. Leaux was extremely comic. If not so perfectly musical as Caprice, while Mr. A. W. Collins' impersonation of Captain De Meritane was full of appropriate individuality. Mr. J. E. Conly made a satisfactory Valentine and Mr. W. H. Newboroug appeared as Marvejal. The chorus work was particularly well done, and the encores were frequent and general. "Olivette" will be repeated this evening, and "Patience" will be given at both performances to-morrow.—The North American.

At the Opera House Monday evening, May 26.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box by Jos. LeCompte.
